FLOWERS given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ball, by their son, Arthur B. Ball.

FLOWERS are also given in memory of Mrs. John B. Ball, by the Young Ladies of her Sunday School Class. It is the second anniversary of Mrs. Ball's death. We accept these gifts with thanks and we remember the faithful service of the loved one for whom they are given. "She being dead, yet speaketh."

The Service at the Home for Aged Women, 121 St. Plummer Ave., NEWARK, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by our Sister Christian Endeavor Society. Mrs. John K. Campbell will lead the meeting. Everybody welcome and urged to attend.

C. E. Meeting tonight 8:45 o'clock. Leader, Mrs. Charles Ross, Jr. Topic: Young People's Society in the program of the Church.

Men's Bible Class February 6th at 9:30 A. M. at the Church. A very unusual feature next Sunday. Leroy Lincoln gives his subject "Charl Talk". Worth giving a long way to hear. The title of the talk is: From "Kinship to Kinship". Mr. Frank Debus will present invited program. Any man, whether a member of this, another, or no church, welcome.
